

Bearing Replacement

While the bridge is jacked, work will be done to replace the bearings under the bridge.

Bearings are important to the long-term performance of the bridge. They allow for and control movement in the bridge to ensure that other structural elements are not overstressed.

